

Call for Nominations of Participants for the 15th N-ECCO School

At the 19th Congress of ECCO in Stockholm, on February 21, 2024 the N-ECCO Committee will host the educational activity for IBD Nurses, N-ECCO School, for the 15th time. ECCO intends to give nurses, who might still be in training and have an interest in IBD, the possibility to attend an IBD-focused course. The ultimate aim of this programme is to improve nurse education throughout Europe.

We are pleased to confirm that in 2024 we are once again welcoming dietitians to participate at the N-ECCO School, as the involvement of dietitians in the treatment of patients is an important part. We also would like to provide delegates from outside of Europe with the possibility to attend this course focusing on the basic aspects of IBD.

Nomination process for IBD Nurse candidates from ECCO Country Members:

The call for nomination of participants will be sent out to all N-ECCO National Representatives in May 2023.
