

Letter from the e-Learning Editor-in-Chief

Dear ECCO Members,

As the Editor-in-Chief of the ECCO e-Learning platform, I am thrilled to bring you the newest updates and exciting developments we have been working on. We are constantly striving to enhance your learning journey, and this edition is packed with information about new Talking Heads, e-Courses, and more! All designed to make your experience even more valuable.

We hope you enjoyed the exciting scientific and educational programs at the ECCO'25 Congress this past February. If you happened to miss any sessions or wish to revisit them, all recordings are available in our e-Library.

Please remember that an up-to-date ECCO Membership is required to access this service and all our valuable content.

Let's dive in and discover what is new!

Webinars

Introducing our newest addition to the educational content on the e-Learning platform.

Our exclusive webinar series on IBD, featuring world-renowned Key Opinion Leaders in gastroenterology. Our Webinars offer expert insights into the latest advancements in diagnosis, treatment, and patient care.

Don't miss this opportunity to explore cutting-edge therapies and get your questions answered during the interactive Q&A sessions.

e-Course

LEVERAGING THE USE OF REAL-WORLD DATA IN IBD

Check out the latest e-Course on Leveraging the use of Real-World Data in IBD

Equip yourself with the knowledge and practical strategies to effectively integrate real-world data into IBD research.

Gain a deeper understanding of how real-world evidence complements clinical trials, enhances patient outcomes, and informs daily practice.

As we conclude this edition, we hope you are as excited as we are about the continuous growth of our ECCO e-Learning platform.

We are committed to providing you with the best resources available. Keep exploring, keep learning, and we'll be back soon with more updates!

Best wishes,

Pascal Juillerat
