

D-ECCO Travel Award Fact Sheet

The European Crohn's and Colitis Organisation (ECCO) offers the Travel Award as an opportunity for a dietitian in IBD to visit a different Inflammatory Bowel Disease (IBD) Centre in Europe and to observe and learn about diet and nutrition in IBD in another centre. Dietitians in IBD have the possibility

- to visit a centre in another country OR
- to visit a different centre located in their own country.

In order to be eligible:

- D-ECCO Travel Award applicants and their host supervisors need to be ECCO Members (at the time of application).
- D-ECCO Travel Award applicants are not limited to the ECCO Member Countries and can apply from non-European countries.
- The candidate and host supervisor should have a reasonable command of the English language (written and oral).
- D-ECCO Travel Awards aim to enhance the opportunity for dietitians in IBD to visit European centres. They are not designed to support travel to congresses or meetings.
- The principal purpose of the Travel Awards is to enhance the fabric of ECCO. Exceptional circumstances such as an applicant from an ECCO Member Country travelling to a non-member country will be considered, but such an application is likely to receive a lower priority than an applicant from a non-member country visiting an ECCO Member Country.
- Members of ECCO Committees are excluded from applying.

Terms of submission

1. A total amount of EUR 1.500 will be awarded per D-ECCO Travel Award.
2. The duration of the award is short term, minimum 2 weeks and maximum 3 months. SciCom/D-ECCO needs to be informed about the duration of the stay.
